Irfan Khan Umrao Khan
Sadique Nagar, Barsitakli, District Akola
Maharashtra, District Akola
Akola, IN-MH 444401

Dear Irfan:

I am pleased to inform you that your appointment as a Post-Doctoral Fellow in the laboratory of Dr. Joseph Salvino has been approved by The Wistar Institute's Training Committee. This is an exempt, full-time position. Our offer is contingent upon successful completion of a background screening. As a foreign national, this appointment is contingent upon receipt of work authorization through the J-1 visa process.

The terms and conditions of our offer are as follows:

Title:	Post-Doctoral Fellow
Direct Report to:	Dr. Joseph Salvino
Annualized Salary:	$53,760 (payable semi-monthly)
Start Date (tentative):	August 2, 2021
Benefits Start Date:	September 1, 2021 (eligibility the first of the month following date of hire, see attached Benefit Summary)

During this Post-Doctoral Fellow appointment, you will work on the interface of small-molecule organic chemistry with disease-relevant biology (cancer, infectious diseases and others) screening of small molecules against various targets such as protein kinases.

It is the policy of The Wistar Institute that individuals are employed on an at-will basis. This means that an employee may terminate employment at any time. Likewise, the Institute may terminate an employee at any time and for any lawful reason.

Attached is a copy of the Institute's policy on Post-Doctoral Fellows, which provides important information for our trainees regarding issues such as appointment and performance. You will receive a review at the end of your first three months which will give you and your principal investigator an opportunity to formally discuss your progress and goals. In accordance with the policy, progress reports and/or Individual Development Plans (IDPs) are submitted to the Chair of the Training Committee annually, typically in the Spring, and appointment renewals contingent on satisfactory performance and availability of funding. The term of your employment as outlined in the policy does not alter the at-will relationship between the Institute and its employees or create legally enforceable contractual rights.

While employed at Wistar, you are personally responsible for (a) fully and properly complying with all laws and regulations of U.S. federal, state and local governments; (b) maintaining your lawful status including not working without authorization; and (c) ensuring that any necessary documents are forwarded to the appropriate government agency in a timely manner. Additionally, this appointment is extended with the understanding that you have adequate command of the English language to participate successfully in the program. Should you have any concerns related to your foreign national status as it relates to your employment at Wistar, please contact Katie Lozier, Immigration Associate, at klozier@wistar.org.

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires us to verify your identity and authorization to work in the United States. A list of documents compiled by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, which will verify identity and authorization to work, is enclosed. You must bring one original document from List A or one original document from both List B and List C on your first day of employment. Because Wistar is an E-Verify participating employer, any List B document presented must contain a photo. To comply with this regulation, please bring your immigration documents to the Human Resources Department on your first day of employment.

You must also bring your Social Security Card on your first day of employment. Your name as it appears on your Social Security Card will be the name entered into our payroll system ensuring that your payroll and tax records are correct. If you do not yet have a Social Security Number, Wistar will provide you with a letter on your first day of employment to assist you with obtaining one.

You are eligible for the benefit programs normally provided to Post-Doctoral Fellows under The Wistar Institute's standard benefits program. A benefit summary is attached. You may also contact Bernadette Foster, Benefits Administrator, about benefits and the costs at bfoster@wistar.org. As a J-1 exchange visitor, you and any J-2 dependents are required to participate in health insurance that meets the criteria established for exchange visitors under 22 CFR 62.14 from the first day of your participation in the exchange visitor program. Under Wistar's health insurance plans, a semi-monthly premium will be deducted from your paycheck to cover the costs of the health insurance. If you are currently enrolled in a health insurance plan with comparable coverage and wish to continue that insurance, you may provide evidence of such coverage to Wistar and waive participation in Wistar's health insurance plan. You will be eligible to participate in the Wistar health insurance plan effective on your first day of employment.

This letter provides our formal offer of employment and supersedes all other oral, written, expressed or implied communications, agreements and/or understandings relating to your employment.

Please acknowledge your acceptance of this offer by signing and returning this letter to the Human Resources Department via email to lucas@wistar.org or fax to 215-898-2204.

Any questions regarding the Institute's training program can be directed to the Training Office at 215-898-3718, or you may contact the Human Resources Department at 215-898-3765.

We all look forward to you joining the Institute and encourage your full participation in all training-related activities. Please feel free to call on me or any member of the Training Committee throughout your tenure with the Institute.
